

Kal-Vegas....BMX racing with plenty of fun. Get the low-down on the Round 9 WA Super Series. This report from Southside's own , Allan Perryman

SATURDAY

Great nights racing Saturday, chance to get a feel for the new track. The new start hill is top notch, the first turn made things interesting, creating the chance for some great moves, but also causing carnage at the same time. Racing done about 5pm and the club put on a great spit roast, a few beers and a chance to catch up and talk trash about the days racing. The auction soon followed with some bargains to be had There was no scoring Saturday apart for the pro open men & women who had the chance to take home a Kal-Vegas trophy - cool.

SUNDAY

Racing

Round 9 of the WA super series, another good days racing. Well organized which made sure the Moto's sailed through smoothly. Unfortunately, I managed to get dropped in the 40+ cruiser (a case of serious bad luck in the moto draws, no seriously stop laughing big foot) and things got worse on the 20" where I managed to perform the lamest crash of the weekend in the first turn.

The prize for the day everyone was interested in was Kal-Vegas gold cup and gold nugget, the rider who finished all their racers first and then improved the greatest with a final time-trial run would win. Of course this prompted a degree of "tanking" during the day, with some riders virtually stopping before the finish line and parents shouting for their little ones to go slower :) - Hey Dean ? Kate Taylor was Southside's best hope but alas it was not to be, the day was Joey Graham's with a very impressive smooth time trial run.

Sunday night .....all sorted, the Southside events team had arranged everything, we got a few quick beers in with Dan Laird and his old man Angus, what could go wrong?.... It had been arranged for most of us all to meet up for food at Judd's and then on to watch the GP bikes. Judd's is not open and the GP bikes is not being shown anywhere in Kal !!!!! We did all get fed and the little ones enjoyed running around and playing with the video games. We were joined by the Regali's clan and we even had an appearance from Slim shady (aka Ben) and his mum Tracey. Much to Dean and Callum's delight Liz took all the little ones home for the night, including Stu, his little toe was hurting I think. So on with the drinks..... With the help of Callum "The Local" Flynn we visited one or two bars, the locals were very impressed by Callum's, "In-be-tweeners" dance :0 Poor Glen and Jared had to go home early as one of the bars was a bit too colourful for someone as young as Glen.... After drinking Toblerone cocktails with Tim from Pal & Panther, and mixing it up on the dance floor with the elite pro's it was time to hit the sack ready for that long drive home in the morning. Well done to all the Southside riders who made the trip. Great weekend, thanks for everyone at the Eastern Goldfields BMX Club for the event and all those who made it out for a drink on Sunday.
